

Mustangs split with Chargers

In games played in Alma on May 4, the mustangs fell behind in the opening game 3-0 in the bottom of the first, and could not recover. The final score was 2-4 in favor of the chargers. The mustangs notched half a dozen singles, but couldn't generate much offensively until the top of the 7th, but then were denied by a bases loaded double play by the Charger defense. Taylor Ebert gave up 7 hits in the game, 4 occurring consecutively in the bottom of the first. Ebert is now 5-3 on the year. Caitlyn Larson was 1-2 in the game, reaching 3 of her 4 plate appearances. Caitline' Christenson was also 1-2 with a single and a stolen base. Bailey Elliott and Lauren Overkamp each had RBI singles in the game.

In game two, the mustangs took the split by a score of 5-3, behind the noteworthy efforts of 4 batters who shouldered the offense. Bailey Elliott went 3-4 with a double and 3 RBI's, Becca Snapp, Caitlyn Larson and Lauren Overkamp each went 2-4. Katie Hodges allowed 6 singles, and struck out 5; Katie is 4-4 on the season now from the mound.

The mustangs will compete against Silver Lake on Friday, May 7 at St. George. Between the double header games, seniors Taylor Ebert, Jana Havens, Becca Snapp & Ashley Srna will be recognized for their 4 years of participation.
