

JV Squad Splits with Abilene

On Monday, April 26 at St. George, the mustang softball JV team was in action against the Abilene cowgirls. The mustangs won the first game 8-6 and fell in the second 13-2. The mustangs had 5 hits in the opener, including 2 doubles with 4 RBI's from freshman Lauren Leupold. Caitline' Christenson, Samantha Taylor and Kynedee Hodges rounded out the offense with their singles. Shiann Bruce and Caitline' Christenson each added 2 stolen bases.

The mustangs and cowgirls were tied at 6 runs each going into the bottom of the sixth, RC added two with one of Leupold's 2 RBI doubles and held on the defensive half of the 7th to earn the win. Caitline' Christenson pitched for the win, improving to 3-0 on the year.

In the late game of the two, the mustangs shot themselves in the foot with only 4 singles, walking 5, wild pitches, passed balls and 9 defensive errors. Ashley McDaris, Katie Zimmerman, Lauren Leupold and Kynedee Hodges each singled in the game; Hodges' single included 2 RBI's. The Abilene pitcher was responsible for 7 outs. Lauren Leupold pitched for the mustangs, allowing only 4 hits, 5 walks. Leupold is now 1-2 on the season.

Currently the mustangs record is 4-2. The mustangs will play at Chapman on Friday, April 30 and then finish their season at home on May 6th against Alma.